

APA 7TH EDITION SENIOR STUDENT REFERENCING GUIDE

WHY SHOULD I REFERENCE?

Referencing is an essential part of unive28(o)u8 RG28(u8 O3()-4(S)4(E)4(N)15(I)6(O)-4(R)r)-3(t)W*nBT/F2

4. where did this work come from (i.e. publisher or online source)

All end-text reference list citations have the following format as their underlying structure:
Author, A. A. (year). Title. Source. Please Note: Place of publication is NO longer required.

HOW MANY AUTHORS?

APA has strict rules for how to show the author's names in the text of your assignment and in your reference list. You need to check the number of authors you have for your work, and then format your references accordingly:

1-2 authors: For one or two authors, always mention the names of all authors

In Text Examples:

Zhang and Webb (2019) noted that students who read bilingual books performed better in vocabulary tests.

Williams, A. N., Turney, C. S. M., Williams, M., Richards, S. M., Mitchell, N. ... Cooper, A. (2017). Aboriginal mitogenomes reveal 50,000 years of regionalism in Australia. Nature, 544(7649), 180-184. <https://doi.org/10.1038/nature21416>

Things to Note:

Pay attention to the use of commas, the ampersand (&), and the word "and".

- You use the word "and" when you are using the author's names as part of your sentence, but an "&" when the names are in the brackets or the reference list.
